

QUESTION RIGHT OF APPEAL FROM RAMSAYS ORDER

ATTORNEYS FOR STATE WANT
SUPREME COURT OPINIONS
ON SUCH ACTIONS.

FIVE SISTERS ARE IN COURT

Defense Says It Will Prove Murdered Man Has Threatened Life of the Girls.

(By Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, Oct. 13.—Judge Pettit this afternoon ruled that if the state could show that the Byers sisters had the right of appeal from Judge Ramsay's refusal of bail he would have to remand them.

States Attorney Ludens said they could not, then Stager backed up.

The defense is elated over this move.

Five sisters are in court ready to testify.

(Special to The Telegraph.)

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Mrs. Emma Hutton and Miss Lillian Byers, the two Sterling women who were brought here from Morrison Monday morning in response to a habeas corpus writ from Judge Pettit's court, were not taken before the Judge in the Cook County Criminal court until 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, and accordingly at 3 o'clock no order had been entered on the question of allowing the women bail, which was the reason for their being brought to Chicago.

For it was on petition of Attorney Charles Erbstein, representing the defense, that the women were brought here to determine whether they should be admitted to bail.

Want Rulings.

Attorneys Walter Stager and Ludens, who are prosecuting the defense, have a right of appeal from Judge Ramsay's ruling that the women be refused bail; and at 3 o'clock no further progress had been made.

Charge Threats.

Five sisters of the murdered man are in court here, and the attorneys for the defense state they will prove by these women that Emmanuel Byers had threatened to kill one of the women.

Monday's Proceedings.

The Chicago Tribune has the following of Monday's transactions in Judge Pettit's court:

Handcuffed to each other and to Deputy Sheriff H. T. Berry of Whiteside county, Mrs. Emma L. Hutton and her sister, Miss Lillian Byers, under indictment for the murder of their brother, Emmanuel Byers, were brought to Chicago yesterday in answer to a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Pettit. It was the first time that handcuffs had ever been used on women in Cook county. "We are not accustomed to handcuffing women," said Judge Pettit to Deputy Sheriff Berry. "If you want me to, I will assign a couple of our deputy sheriffs to guard them as the authorities of Whiteside county seem to fear their escape."

Held in Jail Until Today.

It was finally decided the women should be placed in the county jail until today, when detailed arguments on the petition for the writ will be made by the attorneys.

"You needn't handcuff them unless you feel it absolutely necessary," added Judge Pettit to Deputy Sheriff Edward Schmiedling, into whose custody the prisoners were given.

CARLEY BOYS GO TO GLENWOOD

After another conference late Monday afternoon the officials of Lee county decided to prefer no charges against Floyd and Howard Carley, the two young boys who have been giving so much trouble in this vicinity recently, inasmuch as such action would make it necessary to send the lads to Pontiac. Accordingly they were simply declared dependent and were taken to the Glenwood School for Boys this morning.

Attorney A. C. Warner returned Sunday from a three weeks' business trip to North Dakota.

LUTHERAN'S ANNUAL MEETING SHOWS THE CHURCH FLOURISHING

ANNUAL REPORTS WERE MADE
BY VARIOUS OFFICERS MON-DAY EVENING.

PROPERTY HAS BEEN IMPROVED

Pipe Organ Is Now Being Rebuilt—
Church Has Membership
Of 475.

The annual congregational meeting of St. Paul's Lutheran church was held Monday evening, the meeting being one of interest to all of the members. Encouraging reports were read from the different organizations and it was shown that forty new members were received into the fellowship of the church during the year. The present communicant and contributing membership is 475. The Sunday school enrollment, including the Home Department and Cradle Roll, is 589, with contributions of $467. The missionary societies have 62 members and offerings of $257; while the funds raised by the Ladies' Aid society amounted to $262. The total benevolences of the church for the year amounted to $1,518, while the grand total contributed for all purposes was $5,390. The pastor, Dr. F. D. Altman read a brief statement, showing, among other interesting details, that seventeen children had been baptized during the year; fifty-two weddings had been solemnized, thirty-three funerals had been conducted; there had been ten losses by death in the congregation during the year.

The officers whose terms had expired were re-elected and the five deaconesses, whose faithful services were very much appreciated, were re-appointed.

Many Improvements.

The church property has been greatly improved during the year by paving on the three sides, the expense of which has been paid in full. The pipe organ is now being rebuilt by Mr. J. E. Byington of this city. The latest and best improvements in organ construction will be installed and the new instrument will be ready for use next month.

The spirit of harmony prevails in this congregation and the outlook for the coming year is very gratifying. Refreshments and a most pleasant social followed the business meeting of the congregation.

Another Republican Day In Lee County Wednesday

Tomorrow will be another Republican day in Lee county; for in addition to the big meeting to be held at the Palmyra town hall in the evening a special train carrying the state Republican candidates will visit a number of towns in the county.

The special train, which is making a tour of the state, will arrive in Dixon at 2:15 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and a stop of fifteen minutes will be made here. The speakers will not leave the train but it is expected that a goodly crowd will turn out to see the men who are making the race for state offices on the Republican ticket; and as the list includes some of the most prominent statesmen of the commonwealth it is certain they will have something interesting to say.

STERLING WOMAN FATALLY INJURED BY CAR MONDAY

Mrs. Theda Cassens Died This Morning As Result
Of Accident

(Special to the Telegraph)

Sterling, Oct. 13.—Mrs. Theda Cassens, who was struck and fatally injured by a city street car at the corner of Fourth Avenue and East Third street Monday morning, passed away at 8:30 o'clock this morning. Death was due to a bad fracture of the skull.

The fatal injuries to Mrs. Cassens were sustained when she attempted to cross the street car tracks just ahead of an oncoming car, evidently with the intention of catching it. Mortimer Aument of Dixon, who was in charge of the car, noticed the aged lady on the track ahead of the car, and realizing that she would be unable to get across in safety, threw on the brakes, but owing to the slippery condition of the rails, the car slid and struck Mrs. Cassens, throwing her to the pavement.

She was picked up and carried into the European hotel and medical attention was summoned. Later she was removed to the home of her son, George Cassens, where she passed away this morning.

GAVE LECTURE.

Miss Julia Orvis, formerly of Dixon, a niece of Mrs. A. K. Trussell, who is now occupying the chair of History at Wellesley College, recently gave a lecture before the school on causes of the European war which is said to have been highly entertaining and instructive.

JUDGES OF ELECTION MET TODAY TO COMPILE REGISTERS OF ALL VOTERS

Throughout the county, and in fact the entire state, today the judges of election met to compile the register of voters in the various precincts, the poll books of recent elections being used for the preparation of these registers. Today was the first registration day, Oct. 27 being the second and last.

From today until the second registration day a copy of the register of each precinct will be left hanging at the polling place and voters should investigate in the interim and see that their names are entered on the register. If a voter's name is not entered therein, he should make it a point to see the judges on the second registration day, Oct. 27, and make certain that the name is entered, otherwise it will be necessary that the voters swear their votes in at the general election, Nov. 3.

Women who expect to vote for trustees of the state university, the only offices for which they can vote, at the November election, must also see that their names are included in the register.

QUIMBY GOT 40 DAYS IN JAIL

TOO MUCH BEEF IN FREEPORT FOR DIXON

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL BOYS RAN INTO TEAM OF HEAVY WEIGHTS.

WERE DEFEATED; SCORE 35 TO 6

Played Game, However, and Won the Praise of the Coaches for the Work.

The Dixon High School football team were defeated by the Freeport (High School) team at the Landing day celebration at Freeport yesterday afternoon by a score of 35 to 6. The local boys were greatly outweighted and were unable to cope with the team play of the Stephenson county champions.

When the game was arranged some time ago, the Dixon team was supposed to play the Freeport second team, but when they entered the field yesterday they found the first team to be their opponents. The local boys were outweighted at least twenty-five pounds to the man, but in spite of this they played gamely.

The Freeport first team remained in the game until the last quarter, when the second team was sent to the field and soon after the quarter started the local boys scored their only touchdown. Following this the Freeport coach took out the second string men and put his heavyweights back in the game and kept them in until the end of the game.

The Freeport team scored four different times by the air route, one of their players being an accurate and strong coal kicker. Dixon's only score was made by Vaughan who pushed through the line after the locals had carried the ball to within three yards of the Freeport goal line. Vaughan, Leslie Dolahan and Wold started for the Dixon bunch.

MINE BOSS' HOUSE BLOWN UP

Coal Company's Superintendent in Peril at Collinsville, Ill.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 13.—Two explosions, believed to have been caused by an infernal machine, partly destroyed the home of William P. Scully, superintendent of the Lumaghi Coal company, at Collinsville, Ill. The shock blew away the rear of the building, shook neighboring houses and broke windows across the street. Scully, his wife, their five daughters, three sons and a niece were panic-stricken for a time, but none was injured. Neighbors say they had seen a man with a bundle near the rear of the house. The police are looking for a recently discharged employee of the coal company.

Several years ago Louis F. Lumaghi, president of the company, was driven from Collinsville by the persistence of a "black hand" gang which threatened to blow up his home. Lumaghi then took up a residence in St. Louis. The company's mines are near Collinsville.

BRAVES CAPTURE THIRD STRAIGHT

Athletics Trimmed 5 to 4 in 12-Inning Game.

HANK GOWDY HERO OF SERIES

Boston Catcher Poles Home Run and
Two Doubles and Steals a Base—
Tyler and Bush at Twirling End Fail to Give Exhibition of Two Former Games.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 13.—The fur flew at Fenway park in a slashing game—twelve innings in length—the third of the series between the Braves and Athletics and won by the Braves by a score of 5 to 4. The game, the most desperately fought of any world's series contest, was worked up to a dramatic finale and was finished in the fading light of evening. Three times the Braves tied the score: They tied it in the second, the fourth and the tenth innings and in the twelfth, Leslie Mann running for Gowdy, danced over the goal with the winning run.

Gowdy Real Star of Series. Mann became base runner for Gowdy just after Gowdy had poled a towering two bagger into the left field bleachers in the twelfth. Gowdy's prowess with his bat has been the outstanding feature of the series so far.

The 35,000 fans present never had a moment's relaxation. The two teams were on top of each other all the way, planning and striking for runs.

From the eighth inning on the Braves were in deep water nearly all the time. The ninth, tenth and twelfth were especially trying for them. Bad judgment by Tyler in throwing a ball to second base instead of first started the Boston distress, and it was added to by a still worse case of mental error.

Johnny Evers Misses a Play.

The offender in the latter case was John Evers, who stood still on the second base line, holding the ball while Eddie Murphy, quick to take advantage of an opening, raced home from third. The Evers incident came in the thick of a brilliant sequence of events, which included a scratch hit by Baker to Evers which sent in a run. John redeemed himself in the second half of the thirteenth. He rammed a splitting single to right which went far toward producing Boston's tying run.

Baker Threw With Stick.

It was Frank Baker's bat that accounted for the two runs of the Athletics in the tenth, when it seemed they had won. Schang singled, and after Bush struck out Murphy was safe on a fielder's choice. Oldring was cut down, Tyler to Evers to Schmidt, Tyler deflecting the ball with his glove. Collins then walked and Baker drove in a crashing single to Evers, on which Schang and Murphy scored.

In the ninth inning, with one out, Baker threatened to break up the game when he doubled, but the succeeding batters failed to deliver the needed hit.

The din during the tenth inning was such as probably was never heard before in a ball park as the Boston rooters pulled for a rally. It was a continuous scream and yell, mingled with the clanging of the Royal Rooters' band.

The Athletic infield put their hands about their mouth to make themselves heard in exchanging orders.

Collins' Nap Costly.

Collins' snooze pulled the Braves out of a bad hole in the first inning. The Boston outfit was plainly nervous and Tyler heaving the ball with poor control when Collins was caught off second.

This was the slowest game of the series to date. Neither Tyler nor Bush appeared certain of their control. Bush especially loitered, walking around the box leisurely between each ball pitched.

The young Philadelphia mound man did not field as well as he pitched, for it was on a wild, hurried throw of his that Mann tore off the last lap on the journey in the twelfth inning. However Bush had to hurry that throw and the probabilities are that had it gone true to third base, to which point it was directed, it would have done no more than postpone for a brief time the winning run.

STORK OR BAD BOY TO FIGURE IN SUIT

Tenant Sues Owner of Building for Withholding Lease.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Illinois' new law, which provides a penalty for any landlord or owner of a building who dispossesses a tenant because the latter has children, or acquires them, is to be given its first test in this city.

Charles F. Congleton, wealthy restaurant and flat owner, who has just returned from Europe, was arrested on the charge that J. Warren Isott, one of his tenants, had been refused a lease, the agent giving as the reason the fact that there had been born to the Isotts a baby. Isott rented an apartment of Congleton Nov. 1, 1911, and in June following a baby was born to his wife. In May of this year the agent of the building told Isott he would have to move because of the baby.

At the time Congleton went away his own apartment was rented by G. F. Hughes, who maintains a bull dog, but has no children.

Congleton points to the fact that Isott lived three years in the flat with his boy and that other people with children live there as proof that he is not enforcing an anti-baby rule. He declares Isott's boy, now three years old, had become a nuisance to other tenants.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

Kept her locks youthful, dark, glossy and thick with common garden Sage and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with one all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover that dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling. Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

GRAND DETOUR

5 Women Avoid Operations

For years we have been stating in the newspapers of the country that a great many women have escaped serious operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is true.

We are permitted to publish in this announcement extracts from the letters of five women. All have been recently received unsolicited. Could any evidence be more convincing?

1. HONOLULU, ME.—"I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached and I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgeon, Me.

2. CHARLOTTE, N. C.—"I was in bad health for two years, with pains in both sides and was very nervous. I had a growth which the doctor said was a tumor, and I never would get well unless I had an operation. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I gladly say that I am now enjoying fine health."—Mrs. ROSA SIMS, 16 Winona St., Charlotte, N. C.

3. HANOVER, PA.—"The doctor advised a severe operation, but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it."—Mrs. ADA WILT, 196 Stock St., Hanover, Pa.

4. DECATUR, ILL.—"I was sick in bed and three of the best physicians said I would have to be taken to the hospital for an operation as I had something growing in my left side. I refused to submit to the operation and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and it worked a miracle in my case, and I tell other women what it has done for me."—Mrs. LAURA A. GRISWOLD, 2300 Blk. East William Street, Decatur, Ill.

5. CLEVELAND, OHIO.—"I was very irregular and for several years any side pained me so that I expected to have to undergo an operation. Doctors said they knew of nothing that would help me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I became regular and free from pain. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 7305 Madison Av., Cleveland, O.

Makes Stubborn Coughs Vanish in a Hurry

Surprisingly Good Cough Syrup
Easily and Cheaply
Made at Home

If some one in your family has an obstinate cough or a bad throat or chest cold that has been hanging on and refuses to yield to treatment, get from any drug store 2½ ounces of Pinex and make it into a pint of cough syrup, and watch that cough vanish.

Pour the 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 54 cents, and gives you a full pint—a family supply—of a most effective remedy, at a saving of $2. A day's use will usually overcome a hard cough. Easily prepared in 5 minutes—full directions with Pinex. Keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste. Children like it.

It's really remarkable how promptly and easily it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and breaks the inflamed membranes in a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. A splendid remedy for bronchitis, winter coughs, bronchial asthma and whooping cough.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quinine, which is so healing to the membranes. Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" and do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction goes with this preparation or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

SULPHUR DRIES UP ECZMA AND STOPS ITCHING

THIS OLD TIME SKIN HEALER IS USED JUST LIKE ANY COLD
CREAM.

With the first application of bold-sulphur, the angry itching attending any eczema eruption ceases and its remarkable healing power begins. Sulphur, says a renowned dermatologist, just common bold-sulphur, made into a thick cream will soothe and heal the skin when irritated and broken out with eczema or any form of eruption. The moment it is applied all itching ceases and after two or three applications the eczema disappears, leaving the skin clear and smooth.

He tells Eczema sufferers to get from any good pharmacy an ounce of bold-sulphur and apply it to the irritated, inflamed skin, the same as you would any cold cream.

For many years this soothing, healing sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous affections by reason of its parasite-destroying property. It is not only parasiticide, but also antipruritic, antiseptic and remarkably healing in all irritable and inflammatory conditions of the skin. While it never fails to instantly subdue the irritation and heal the eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin.

THE WORK OF THE SPY.

It is interesting to note to what extent the work of the military spy is carried on among European nations. Death is the certain portion of every spy caught in the act and yet from all accounts for some time previous to the breaking out of hostilities France was so overrun with German spies, male and female, that there was scarcely a city or town without one or more. Likewise we may assume that there were French spies in Germany and more German spies in Russia and English spies almost everywhere. Even now while the war is raging spying is going on when it is known that detection brings a speedy court martial and prompt execution.

In view of the recognition given to the work of a spy by his own government it has always seemed harsh to some that he should be doomed to an ignominious death under military law. Arrest and imprisonment with the confiscation of all papers and data with which he is found possessed might be sufficient.

So far as concerns the location of an enemy and the strength of his fortifications that is now largely accomplished by means of the aeroplane and airship so that each army is in possession continually of information that was gained formerly only through spies. And when the spying aviator is caught he is not subjected to the death penalty.

As the old-fashioned spy is being superseded by the unavoidable publicity gained through the aeroplane his punishment might be somewhat mitigated.

VOCATIONAL STUDIES.

The vocational studies in the way of business courses and so forth that have been added to the Dixon High school by the school board and with the hearty co-operation of Superintendent W. R. Snyder are working out famously and the students are taking advantage of the opportunity to fit themselves for business life in gratifying numbers. This is surely a progressive step and The Telegraph hopes that it will soon be followed by other improvements that can be made at low cost. The cost of the extra courses which have been added this year has been taken care of at no extra expense to the tax payers.

A GOOD INDICATION.

Sterling had a big day for their "Dollar Day" and the turning on of their new street lights. Many Dixon people attended. The spirit between the two cities is beginning to be one of considerably more friendliness than in other days, and The Telegraph hopes that such spirit will be fostered. When the Citizens' Association was advertising the United States Marine band concert recently, the Dixon men who went to Sterling to distribute advertising met with very cordial and courteous treatment among the Sterling business men, and Dixon appreciates it.

The two cities can do much for each other by working together.

THE SOCIETY CIRCUS.

On Thursday and Friday nights of this week the Opera House will be given over to the production of the Dixon "Society Circus." The proceeds of the entertainments are to go to the local hospital. There is no cause to which money could be better applied and it is to be hoped that the patronage will be large and, in fact, we are confident that it will be.

A large number of Dixon people are giving up their time to aid in making the play a success. They are to be congratulated upon their public spiritedness.

It is, of course, all right for the President to remain in Washington all this time, but there is no reason for trying to proclaim as such a virtue.

The Unhappy Warrior

By WALT MASON

I'm not a happy warrior; I don't find scrapping pleasant, and no one could be sorer when I find trouble present. I do not think it glorious on snorting steed to ride, and rant around, uproariously, demandin' someone's hide. I'm fond of peace and piety, I hope to spend my life, afar from mixups and riot, afar from foolish strife. I'd do my stunt laboriously, and draw my humble wage, and those who think war glorious may grind their swords and rage. I'd spend my lifetime happily, good friends with men and kings; alas, some neighbors, scrappily, insist on mixing things. Because I treat them smilingly they think I have no spunk; I greet them so beginningly they climb upon my trunk. They'd fain assault and batter me, because it's safe, they say; they'd punch my head and scatter me to make a holiday. And then I swat them mightily, and lacerate their hair, and black their eyes so vitally they wish they were not there. War's garments are not wearable, while peace remains in sight; but, gee, whiz, I am terrible, if folks must have a fight! Some countries are like men, I guess, they seem so meek and mild, until you prod them—then, I guess, you'll see them running wild!

Body of State Official Found by Wife at Garage at Home, Where He Blew Out His Brains—Plunged Heavily, It Is Said, to Recover Losses Running for U. S. Senator.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Harry Woods, secretary of state of Illinois, committed suicide in Springfield, probably Saturday night. His body was found at 7 o'clock Monday morning by his wife. It was in the garage at the rear of their home, 628 Walnut street. A revolver lying by the body and a bullet hole in the head told the story.

Woods apparently had not been at home since Saturday. His wife thought he was away on some political business. She found his body in the garage. She called Walter A. Townsend, editor of the Springfield Record, who lives next door to the Woods residence.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

To be healthy, and sane and well and happy, you must work with your hands as well as with your head.

A wise man does not need advice and a fool will not take it.

BREAKFAST DISHES.

The warm weather of midsummer creates the desire for juicy, refreshing fruits, and the first meal of the day is well started if some variety is served. It is the general opinion that breakfast is one of the hardest meals to prepare. Not only because the appetite is then most capricious, but one must use care not to fall into the rut of bacon, eggs, toast and coffee until the sight of a piece of toast is reason for saying things.

As toast is so inevitable and withal so necessary, we should learn to spare our families the infliction of underdone or scorched, tough or greasy pieces. Cereals which are light and require little cooking are more favorable for hot weather than the heartier oatmeal and wheats. There is no more delicious breakfast dish in the summer than fresh fish with radishes and a bit of French fried potatoes.

Steamed eggs make a nice breakfast dish and when cooked in a steam cooker are no trouble to prepare. But the cups, drop in the raw egg, sprinkle with salt and pepper and steam until firm. Slip each egg, which will be beautifully round, on rounds of buttered toast and serve.

Ham and Poached Egg.—Mix two cupfuls of finely chopped cooked ham, one tablespoonful of prepared mustard, one teaspoonful of minced parsley and two tablespoonfuls of cream. Mix thoroughly and form into cakes. Make a depression in each, drop a raw egg in the center of each, sprinkle with salt and pepper, dot with butter and bake in a moderate oven until the eggs set. Remove and cover each with the white of the egg beaten stiff, dust with salt and pepper and return to the oven to brown.

Pineapple and Banana Purée.—Press ripe bananas through a potato ricer, add orange juice and sugar, and heap on thin slices of pineapple, place a luscious strawberry for garnish and serve ice cold. This is nice for a fruit course at a luncheon.

Steamed bananas served with lemon juice on well-buttered toast make another nice breakfast dish. Use plenty of butter and a little lemon juice.

Changed the Lord's Prayer. Kafir women will not pronounce their husband's names, or even use words which contain the emphatic syllable of those names. One old woman, being taught to say the Lord's prayer, chanted the word for "come" in "Thy kingdom come" to something that made nonsense, and it proved that the proper "come" word was the main syllable of her husband's name.

Rat-Proof Brooder. Chickens have many enemies and are helpless from most of them. They are in danger from hawks by day and from rats and vermin at night, and the wonder is that the mortality rate is not higher than it is. An Illinois man has invented a metal brooder coop that should help keep this rate down, for it is proof against almost all things that fly, run or creep.

Bismarck on Thieving. Bismarck said a Russian only had sense to steal a day's living, a Dutchman a year's, but an Englishman, said Bismarck, rarely stole less than a life's keeping. Bismarck said if there was one absolute, undeviating, rock-bottom fact in Anglo-Saxon makeup and character, it was thievery all flowered over and spiritualized and hidden by gardens of hypocrisy.

Afternoon Suits are Irrisistably Charming

Can you imagine anything more becoming than the Bischof model illustrated here? Soft material falls in graceful folds to form the underskirt, the collar and cuffs, while chiffon, broadcloth, so popular this season, is used to develop the accordin plaited tunic and the cape-coat combination. Note how the buttons are used to gather in the fullness at the waist and the sleeves.

There are many others equally as becoming and equally as attractive. If you're looking for a dressy costume that exactly expresses your personality, we are sure you will find exactly what you are looking for in one of these Bischof models.

Judge Frank D. Ramsay of Morrison, Ill., granted an injunction restraining Schmedding from serving the writ of habeas corpus, but Sheriff J. F. Wahl of Whiteside county was out of town when he arrived and he served it on Berry. The latter decided to take no chances with Judge Pettit and took the prisoners from the Morrison jail and brought them here, accompanied by Mrs. Wahl.

Arguments Put Off.

Because yesterday was a holiday, Judge Pettit postponed arguments until today. State's Attorney J. J. Ludens of Whiteside county made a motion to quash the proceedings on technical grounds.

"I will show that Judge Ramsay is prejudiced in this case and that he went so far as to visit the state's attorney and advise him as to what proceedings to take," said Attorney Charles E. Erbstein. "I'll show this to be true by dictograph records. You didn't know we had a dictograph in your office, did you?" he asked Prosecutor Ludens.

"Let him rave," interrupted Assistant Stat's Attorney Francis J. Hinkley of Cook county, who assisted Prosecutor Ludens. The court reprimanded him for the "unlawyer-like" remark.

SICK, SOUR STOMACH INDIGESTION OR GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" Makes Upset Stomachs Feel Fine in Five Minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal food limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's unnecessary.

CHICAGO VICE KING WILL BE DEPORTED

Charles Maibaum and Wife Must Return to France.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 12.—Deportation of undesirable aliens, interrupted by the opening of the European war, will be resumed this week to several foreign countries.

Immigration officials in Chicago and many other cities will start Monday to hunt down the undesirables, many of whom have been released upon their own recognizance because of the government's inability to obtain passage for them on foreign bound ships.

Chicago will lose one of its old time vice kings as a result of the order. He is Charles Maibaum, at one time owner of the St. Charles hotel, on South State street, and the proprietor of other dives.

Maibaum has conducted a legal fight for the last six years to prevent his deportation. Both he and his wife will be in the first shipment of undesirables from Chicago, say the immigration inspectors.

When arrested and ordered deported Maibaum produced naturalization papers and defied the authorities. Then Federal Judge Landis canceled the naturalization certificates. Maibaum appealed the case to the United States supreme court.

Last January the supreme court affirmed Judge Landis' decision, but Maibaum did not give up his battle. Soon afterward United States Senator Lewis obtained for him a ninety day stay of proceedings on the plea that he would need that time in which to dispose of his "red light" district property.

Maibaum and his wife are both natives of France, and upon the theory that his life will be endangered there because of the war, he is expected to make on more effort to stay deportation.

L. C. Bond Issue Approved.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 12.—The state public utilities commission issued an order authorizing the Illinois Central Railroad company to issue joint refunding bonds bearing 5 per cent interest to the amount of $13,348,100 for the purpose of refunding money spent in the purchase of the Chicago, St. Louis & New Orleans railroad.

All But One.

A man who was "wanted" in Russia had been photographed in six different positions, and the pictures were duly circulated among the police departments. The chief of one of these wrote to headquarters a few days after the issue of the set of portraits, reporting as follows: "I have received the portraits of the six miscreants whose capture is desired. I have arrested five of them, and the sixth is under observation and will be secured shortly."

At Last a Confession.

"That omelet," remarked the young benedict to his wife as he rose from breakfast—"that omelet is just like my mother used to make."

The wife, who was the preparer of the dish, looked delighted.

"Yes," continued the man, "it's just like mother used to make. Mother never could cook anything fit to eat!"

NEGROES IN AMERICA INCREASE BY 993,769

Race Owns Farm Property Valued at $1,144,181,000.

Washington, Oct. 13.—The number of negroes in the United States proper in 1910 was 9,827,763, compared with 8,833,994 in 1900, or an increase of 993,769, a preliminary report of the census bureau announced. In 1910 negroes formed 10.7 per cent of the total population, against 11.6 per cent in 1900. The increase for the decade was 11.2.

The number of negro men in 1910 was 4,885,881, against 4,941,882 women.

The number of negro rural dwellers was 7,138,534, forming 14.5 per cent of the rural population.

Of a total of 2,953 counties in the United States there were only 110 in which there were no negroes, and there were 53 counties in 1910, against 35 counties in 1900, in which 75 per cent of the population was negro.

Of the total number of negroes ten years of age and over, 2,227,731, or 30.4 per cent, were reported as illiterate. The percentage of illiteracy decreased from 57.1 in 1890 to 39.4 in 1910.

The total value of farm property operated by negroes was $1,144,181,000, against $499,941,000. The death rate among them in the registration area 25.5 per cent of 1,000, against 29.4 in 1900.

Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 13.—As he stepped from his engine after completing a run from St. Louis, Fireman A. drew Moran was struck by another engine and killed.

NO ENCORE.

One Verse Was Quite Sufficient, She Coldly Said.

A child-loving man was on his way to Denver to transact some important business. During the afternoon he noticed, in the opposite section of the Pullman, a sweet-faced, tired-looking woman, traveling with four small children. Feeling sorry for the mother, he soon made friends with the little ones.

Early the next morning he heard their eager questions behind the curtains of the berth, and the patient "Yes, dear," of the mother as she tried to dress them, and, looking out, he saw a small white foot protruding beyond the opposite curtain. Reaching across the aisle, he took hold of the large toe and began to recite:

"This little pig went to market,
This little pig stayed at home;

This little pig had a piece of roast beef,

This little pig had none;

This little pig cried 'wee-wee' all the way home."

"How is that?" inquired the eager man.

Then the foot was suddenly withdrawn and a cold, quiet voice said:

"I should think it was quite sufficient."

PRINCESS THEATRE

Tonight the Princess will have a diversified program in a two reel Reliance drama entitled "The Runaway Freight," with Eugene Palette and Francesca Billington in the leading roles. This is a story of a tramp befriended by a daughter of the station agent and she secures him a position as brakeman, when her unwilling suitors try to lure her into a box car and send her away, the man she befriended saves her at the risk of his life. The other pictures are "The Masqueraders" a Keystone comedy with many laughs, and "Sierra Jim," a fine Majestic drama of love and intrigue.

CONVENIENT.

Marjorie—Yes, indeed; and he mailed it so early that I had time to send it to someone else.

Profitable Insurance.

By a strange coincidence a much-married woman lost three husbands in succession through fatal accidents in the mine. Naturally, her case excited much interest, and she had many sympathetic callers, to all of whom she made the same reply:

"Ah, yes, it's very hard; but in the midst of my sorrow I've always had something to be thankful for. None of my husbands lived long after I'd insured 'em, as some poor souls' husbands do!"

SEE IF THE CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

IF CROSS, FEVERISH, CONSTIPATED, GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat, or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat; diarrhoea, full of cord, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

GETS RARE LIBRARY.

The Jarboe Collection, Dealing with French Revolution.

The famous "Jarboe collection" of rare volumes of the French Revolution was acquired by Stanford University. This extremely valuable addition to the local library comes as a surprise to nearly everyone, as it was regarded as unobtainable by numerous institutions which had already made advances with a view of buying the choice collection of books. This collection takes its name from the man who originally brought the books together, John R. Jarboe, a prominent lawyer of San Francisco, many years ago.

The value of the library does not lie in its size, but in the character of its contents. The collection contains approximately 2,500 pieces. These are from almost entirely original sources and materials, most of them being extremely rare. The collection of contemporary pamphlets alone comprises 1,500 titles, and memoirs are present in surprising numbers. The plates and prints on subjects relating to the French Revolution add interest to the collection. It is surpassed only by the Andrew D. White collection at Cornell University, and perhaps by the libraries of some of the older universities, or of such as have made special purchases along this line.—San Francisco Chronicle.

HARRY WOODS ENDS HIS LIFE

Illinois State Secretary's Accounts Overdue.

State Auditor Brady, after a conference with Governor Dunne, placed the auditor's chief clerk in charge of the dead man's office and put eight bank examiners to work searching the books.

Brady Takes Charge.

All of the clerks in departments in the office of the secretary of state that handle fees were required to hand over the keys to State Auditor Brady when he put a force of expert accountants to work on the books in the morning. It is reported that M. F. Dunlap of the banking firm of Dunlap & Russell of Jacksonville was in Springfield last Friday and had a heated argument with Secretary Woods. What this argument was about nobody seems to know, but it is said that it was in regard to his deposits in the bank at Jacksonville.

Later it was learned that most of Woods' bonds had been placed through this firm.

Plunged on Senatorship.

Woods was defeated for the Democratic nomination for United States senator at the recent primaries.

A desperate but unsuccessful attempt to regain his heavy campaign expenses had caused him to plunge heavily in wheat futures on the Chicago Board of Trade, in which he still retained membership, but the war upset his plans, along with those of many other "wise" speculators, and he found himself more deeply involved than ever, according to certain local grain brokers who were well acquainted with him and his dealings.

Mr. Woods came to Chicago from Springfield last Saturday and made a number of visits around the board of trade, apparently doing his best to straighten out his affairs. After a farewell visit to his mother he went back to the state capital in the evening. He went at once to his room and sat up all night checking over his accounts.

Early Saturday morning he went to the garage, locked himself in and shot himself. A bundle of papers showing his grain dealings was found by the body.

Possibly the magnitude of this year's farm product values in the South will be the better grasped from the simple statement that they will exceed by at least $200,000,000 the total value of all farm crops of the United States in 1890.—Manufacturers' Record, Baltimore.

The great Welsh coal strike is said to have cost the parties concerned the sum of nearly $13,000,000.

Mining With Liquid Air.

Liquid air has a commercial value in England as a blasting explosive, and is used in many mines for the dislodgment of coal. The cartridges are made of thick phosphor-bronze, and the explosion takes place in about six minutes after loading. About thirty tons of coal can be broken by one shot. The explosive power of liquid air depends upon its property of turning suddenly into vapor at a high temperature.

Herr Dernburg's Post.

By accepting the post of head of the German Colonial Office, Herr Dernburg made a great pecuniary sacrifice. He was a director of several banks and of about a dozen of the leading industrial enterprises in Germany, his annual income amounting it is stated, to about $100,000. He relinquished this for a salary of $3,750 and an official residence.

To Adopt Khaki.

The Russian military authorities are considering the adoption of khaki uniforms, the Czar having been especially interested in one recently worn by an American army representative at St. Petersburg. The military authorities are also considering American accoutrements, including web cartridge belts and cavalry saddles, with a view to their adoption.

Length of Telegraph Lines.

The United States is easily first as regards the length of her telegraph lines, being 1,160,965 miles, or about three times as much as Great Britain or France, which have 386,353 and 391,275 miles of wire, respectively. Germany has the largest telegraph system in Europe, 461,039 miles. Russia, with Siberia included, has only 402,371 miles of wire.

The Trey O'Hearts

But even so, there was neither rest for the weary nor much excuse for self-congratulation; the rumble of the special was not altogether lost to hearing when the thunder of the freight replaced and drowned it out.

Of a sudden, releasing the hand-bar, Alan stood up and signed to Barcus to imitate his example.

"Well—" this last panted, when he had obeyed.

"Jump off—leave the hand car where it is—they'll have to stop to clear it off the track."

"And then?"

"I'll buy a lift from them if it takes my last dollar in the world," Alan promised. "It's our only hope. We can't keep up this heartbreaking business forever—and it can't be long before Trine and Marrophat discover their mistake!"

CHAPTER XXXV.

Caboose.

For once, in a way, it fell out precisely as Mr. Law had planned and prayed.

Constrained to pull up in order to remove the obstruction from the track, the train crew of the freight choked down its collective wrath on being presented with a sum of money. In the hopes of further largesse it lent its common ear to Alan's well-worn tale, which had so frequently proved useful in similar emergencies, of an eloping couple pursued by an unreasonably vindictive parent; and had its hopes rewarded by the price Alan bargained to pay in exchange for exclusive use of the caboose as far as the next town.

So that it was not more than ten minutes before Rose was settled to rest in such comfort as the caboose afforded, while Alan and Barcus sat within its doorway and smoked.

Neither he nor any other aboard the freight suspected for an instant that, in the box car next forward of the caboose, a woman in man's clothing lay perdu, now and again chuckling impishly to herself in anticipation of the time and the event she was biding with such patience as she could muster.

The whistle of a locomotive overtaking the freight sounded the signal for her to take action on her cherished plan.

Rising, she glanced out of the open door. A curve in the track below the freight, laboring up a steep grade, enabled her to catch a glimpse of a headlight, followed by a string of lighted windows, indicating a single car: the special, beyond a doubt.

Without hesitation, since the train was not running at speed, she dropped out to the ballast, wheeled smartly about, caught the handbar at the end of the box car as it passed and swung herself up between it and the caboose.

A trifle later the freight gained the summit of the grade and began to run more smoothly.

Climbing to the top of the box car she peered keenly through the gloaming, which was not yet so dense that she might not discern two heads protruding from the window of the special's engine, one on either side.

Judith Uncoupling the Caboose.

At a venture, she snatched off her coat and waved it wildly in the air.

An arm answered the signal from one window of the pursuing locomotive.

Marrophat, of course!

She turned and peered ahead. The freight was approaching a trestle that spanned a wide and shallow gully.

So much the better!

Dropping down again between the cars, she set herself to solve the problem of uncoupling the caboose.

In this she was successful just as the last car rolled out on the trestle.

Its own impetus carried the caboose to the middle of the trestle before it stopped.

As this happened, Alan and Barcus, already warned of an emergency by the slowing down of the car, and for some time alive to the fact that the special was again in pursuit, leaped out upon the ties and helped Rose to alight.

WEST BROOKLYN

We all love to see good shows. That's why we're going to enjoy the coming attraction in the opera house Oct. 26, 27 and 28th.

County Superintendent of Highways L. B. Neighbour of Dixon was in our town Thursday conferring with the highway commissioners of Viola township on matters pertaining to bridges.

A special meeting of St. Mary's court C. O. F. will be held in the club rooms on Friday night at 7:30 sharp. Remember the date, October 16th, 1914.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bernardin and daughter Kathryn went to Chicago on Thursday.

Peter Barnickel was in town from South Brooklyn on last Friday forenoon.

E. R. Taylor was a visitor in Mendota Friday.

Wm. E. Bauer was here Friday morning.

Mrs. Isadore Gehant entertained the Royal Neighbors of Compton at her home on First Street Thursday afternoon.

J. Miller, scale superintendent of the C. B. & Q. R. R. Company, dropped in upon the management of the Farmers' Elevator company this week unawares and made known his business in town very shortly. He had with him the equipment to test both the track and wagon scales and this he did, not in the interest of the elevator people, but as the representative of the railroad company. Both the track and wagon scales he found in good shape and has furnished Mr. Long, the manager, with his scales document showing the scales in first class order.

John C. Henkel was here Friday on business.

St. Mary's court of Foresters held their regular monthly meeting in the club rooms on Thursday night. So much business came before the meeting that it was decided to have a second meeting on Friday night, October 16th, to complete their work. Now, let's see how many of the 98 members can be there Friday night.

John Haub was in town Friday on business.

On Wednesday night the young people of West Brooklyn entertained Miss Kathryn Bernardin at the opera house in a pre-nuptial shower. The entertainment was out of the ordinary and as a result those present report a splendid time. Miss Ruby Johnson and C. P. Henkel led the grand march. Miss Bernardin received many presents from the gathering and was more than pleased with the surprise tendered in her honor.

Charles Schnucker of South Brooklyn was in town transacting business Thursday.

Senator L. Y. Sherman and his attendant republican friends touring the county reached West Brooklyn on Friday a little before noon. The senator after being introduced to those upon the street arose in his car and delivered a brief speech. He counts Mr. Robins, the progressive candidate against him, as down and out for certain and feels quite positive that he is to defeat Roger Sullivan, the democratic candidate at the coming election. The only fault he might find with his remarks was that he was too select in describing the work of his opponents. Mr. Sherman apparently does not believe in the old adage: Measure according to the good that is done and not alone by a few mistakes. There is no one living who is not liable to err and consequently if we start out to judge humanity by the errors instead of their good deeds we will find an awful world of people about us. Mr. Sherman excused himself for being here by saying that he was of no use in Washington where congress is in session, for a democratic congress was assisted by a democratic president in doing the things that are being done. Why then does he seek re-election if he is of no good there? There will still be a democratic congress and a democratic president after November 4th. Better send a senator that can be of good to that congress instead of one who admits that he "don't count" when he is there.

Sam Carr of DeKalb has taken offices at the Hotel Tressler where he will be pleased to quote the following prices on everything in his line: News papers 20c per 100 lbs., magazines 30c per 100 lbs., rags 1/2c per lb., rubber 30c per rib, and brass or copper 5c per lb.

H. L. Fordham and son Frank of Dixon were in West Brooklyn on Friday in the interest of the former's candidacy for state senator at the coming election on the progressive ticket.

William Dix of Amboy was here on Thursday.

We were somewhat surprised to read of the marriage of Miss Anna Schulthies of Amboy to Eddie V. Bauer of West Brooklyn. Nevertheless we congratulate the young people on their union and wish them happiness and prosperity.

Geo. J. Montavon was here Thursday.

Don't Waste Your Money.

Resolve to put a certain part of your wages in the bank the first thing after receiving your wages each week and you will find that somehow the balance will buy your necessities and some extra pleasures. And when you see your nice bank account at the end of the year you will wonder why you didn't make this resolution years ago. We will be pleased to have your account. Henry F. Gehant Banking Co., West Brooklyn, Ill.

G. L. Nelles of Dixon motored to West Brooklyn on last Friday afternoon.

Paul Halbmaier was here Saturday morning.

C. C. Weber has on display at the bank three odd specimens of potatoes grown by him this season. The specimens resemble sea monsters instead of something fit to eat.

F. L. Oester and M. J. Haas were in Chicago last Friday transacting business. Mr. Haas is soon to open a general garage on Main street and his visit was on matters pertaining to the opening. The gentlemen have accepted the agency for a well known automobile and expect to sell many during the coming year.

August Chaon of the Berg has leased the O. N. Daw residence and will reside here.

A DOLLAR THAT CAN'T BE SPENT

By Herbert Kauffman, author of "Do Something! Be Something!"

Every dollar spent in advertising is not only a seed dollar which produces a profit for the merchant, but is actually retained by him even after he has paid it to the publisher.

Advertising creates a good will equal to the cost of the publicity.

Advertising really costs nothing. While it uses funds it does not use them up. It helps the founder of a business to grow rich and then keeps his business alive after his death.

It eliminates the personal equation. It perpetuates confidence in the store and makes it possible for a merchant to withdraw from business without having the profits of the business withdrawn from him. It changes a name to an institution—an institution which will survive its builder.

It is really an insurance policy which costs nothing—pays a premium each year instead of calling for one and renders it possible to change the entire personnel of a business without disturbing its prosperity.

Advertising renders the business stronger than the man—indeed of his presence. It perpetuates systems of merchandising, the track of which is left for others to follow.

A business which is not advertised must rely on the personality of its proprietor, and personality in business is a decreasing factor. The public does not want to know the man who owns the store—it isn't interested in him but in his goods.

When an unadvertised business is sold it is worth only as much as its stock of goods and its fixtures. There is no good will to be paid for—it does not exist—it has not been created. The name over the door means nothing except to the limited stream of people from the immediate neighborhood, or of whom could tell you more about some store ten miles away which has regularly delivered its shop news to their homes.

It is as shortsighted for a man to build a business which dies with his death or ceases with his inaction, as it is unfair for him not to provide for the continuance of its income for his family.

Monkey Is at Large.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 13.—A vagrant monkey, supposed to have escaped from some circus or carnival company, is throwing continuous frights into farm workers in the vicinity of New Berlin.

Taylorville, Ill., Oct. 13.—Harry Forbes, who shot and killed his brother Marion on the evening of June 20, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Chester penitentiary.

PUBLIC STILL WONDERS WHO VEILED PROPHET IS

Curiosity as to Mysterious St. Louis "Ruler's" Identity Grows as His Peace Pageant, Aimed to Stop European War, Draws Near

THE VEILED PROPHET CROWNING HIS QUEEN.

The announcement that the Veiled Prophet will spend between $40,000 and $50,000 on a pageant through St. Louis streets the night of Tuesday, Oct. 6, and a ball later the same night at the Coliseum in that city, in an effort to end the European war by reminding the world of the blessings of peace, has intensified the nation-wide interest in the question of who this mysterious ruler really is and who are his equally mysterious "subjects."

This will be the Veiled Prophet's thirty-seventh annual appearance at St. Louis, the only city in which he ever has shown himself. "Through all those years the curious have sought to establish his identity, but every such effort has been unsuccessful. Who he is none of the most alert newspapers of that important city—the fourth, in point of population, in the United States—ever has been able to find out.

Rumors by the thousand concerning the identity of the Veiled Prophet and his choice for queen circulate every year, but none ever can be verified.

Why Is the Veiled Prophet?

"Why is the Veiled Prophet?" someone occasionally asks, the question usually implying the asker's opinion that the Prophet has outlived his usefulness, if, indeed, his existence ever was justified. But an overwhelming majority of the people of St. Louis appear to think otherwise, and so do hundreds of thousands outside of St. Louis. Each year the Prophet's magnificent parade of electric floats is witnessed by cheering multitudes that throng every street through which it passes.

A small-sized rebellion broke out in the realm of the Veiled Prophet several years ago, according to rumors which are believed well founded, but his Mysterious Majesty promptly squelched it, appearing in public that year in greater splendor than ever before. So far as can be learned, his Mysterious Majesty that year experienced the only unpeaceful moment in his long reign. In advocating peace he thus speaks from experience.

What "Crowd" Runs It?

Just what "set" of men, if any, controls the Veiled Prophet organization is as much a mystery as the identity of the Prophet. The inquiring visitor may hear from one man that the "Merchants' Exchange crowd" runs the organization; from another that the "Washington avenue merchants" are behind it; and from a third that it is a frolic of rich men and their sons. All of these informants may have spoken with the air of one having inside information to divulge, when in reality each based his assertions on mere rumors.

The writer has encountered ample evidence that the Veiled Prophet enterprise is not primarily a commercial one. Were the pageant and ball essentially commercial, a considerable part of the great sum of money annually expended by the organization undoubtedly would be appropriated for publicity purposes. But instead of using this great electric pageant—the greatest held annually in the United States—as a lever with which to draw visitors from all parts of this continent and from Europe the Veiled Prophet organization seems content to limit its publicity efforts to an advance description of the pageant and ball and a hanger in colors. Be it said to the credit of the Veiled Prophet organization that so far as the publicity goes it is beyond criticism.

The hanger shows a portrait of his Mysterious Majesty displaying a scroll containing mysterious hieroglyphics and, alongside, in English, "The Veiled Prophet."

Show your appreciation of the good paper we are sending you by remitting for a year's subscription. Look at the little yellow tag. It serves as a receipt. It might be wrong.

the simple announcement: "The Veiled Prophet will appear, St. Louis, Oct. 6, 1914." The advance descriptive matter invariably is of great literary merit. Virtually every line the newspapers eagerly print, but there the publicity ends, unless some outside organization chooses to volunteer supplementary effort.

It's Just for Fun.

The absence of the spirit of commercialism, except in a secondary sense, convinces the writer that the Veiled Prophet pageant is first of all a huge frolic—a generous effort to promote good fellowship. This theory is consistent with an official announcement issued several years ago by a Veiled Prophet courier who refused absolutely to make public a single name and even succeeded in keeping his own name out of print. His announcement was as follows:

"Nobody except the members is allowed to contribute to the fund. Every member is pledged not to reveal his or any fellow member's connection with the pageant. The organization is a close corporation. Followers of the Veiled Prophet seldom resign. The membership is limited and usually descends from father to son. Candidates are passed upon with great care by a secret committee and the important qualifications are personal quality and business or professional standing. Many of the members are men of moderate means. The night of the pageant each member, as he is assigned to duty, loses his personality and becomes a number. As such he remains until the ceremonies are over, his name not once being spoken. Much attention is given to the preparation of the invitation list for the ball. Each member submits the names of a limited number of friends. No social set dictates to whom invitations shall be issued, and hence the guests are representative of the city in the best sense."

Fun Began in 1878.

St. Louis was the third city in the United States to adopt the style of carnival which burlesques the monarchical plan of government. Long before the war of the states, perhaps 70 years ago, Mobile originated an annual fete of this character. New Orleans followed suit, and in 1878 the idea spread to St. Louis. That year the Veiled Prophet made his debut. Each year since then he has been the central figure of the city's greatest street parade and most gorgeous ball.

The crowning of the queen is the pageant's brilliant climax. The queen invariably is one of the young society girls of the city. With her maids of honor she meets the Prophet at his throne in the ballroom. There her "royal master" proclaims her his queen by placing on her head a jeweled crown. The coronation is followed by a grand march, led by the Veiled Prophet and his queen, his retinue and their ladies immediately following. The queen herself remains in ignorance of the Veiled Prophet's identity. He and his masked followers, one by one fade away, and, exchanging their weird costumes for evening dress, regain their personality and reappear on the dance floor.

Society Backs Masque Ball.

St. Louis society has sprung a sensation by getting behind the public masque ball which will be held at the Coliseum there the night of Thursday, Oct. 8.

James E. Smith, president of the St. Louis Symphony Society, is chairman of the Executive Committee.

Unlike the Veiled Prophet ball, the masque ball will be open to the public at large, on payment of an admission fee.

PEACE CONFAB IS ON AT AGUAS CALIENTES

Washington Says Prospects Are Brighter for Mexico.

Washington, Oct. 13.—The state department is advised that the proposed Mexican peace conference has been inaugurated at Aguas Calientes.

According to the department's reports the outlook is brighter for something to be done to settle the Villa-Carranza differences and to adopt a political program for Mexico than for many days. Representatives of both Villa and Carranza are present as are also three delegates representing Zapata.

Only a brief report was received from the border fighting at Naco today. According to the opinion of the American army officers at Naco the contest between Maytorena and General Hill seems likely to end in a draw. Maytorena failed yesterday in his attempt to capture the trenches of the forces occupying Naco.

The state department is advised that four Americans are prisoners at Nogales, Sonora, charged with having blown up a railroad bridge over which a train bearing soldiers was expected to pass. General Maytorena has given assurances to the United States consul at Nogales to the effect that he will take no summary action in the cases and will afford abundant opportunity to be adequately defended when they are tried.

OLDEST RAIL OFFICIAL DIES

Oliver S. Lyford, Ninety-one, Passes Away at Son's Home.

Wheaton, Ill., Oct. 13.—Oliver S. Lyford, vice president of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad, and one of the oldest railroad officials in the United States, died at the residence of his son, Will T. Lyford, in Wheaton.

Mr. Lyford was ninety-one years of age, but, in spite of his years, he went daily to his office and took an active part in the management of the railroad until ten weeks ago, when he was stricken with illness. He was removed to the home of his son, where he gradually grew weaker until the end came.

DOES BACKACHE WORRY YOU

SOME DIXON PEOPLE HAVE LEARNED HOW TO GET RELIEF.

How many people suffer from an aching back?
How few know the cause?
If it hurts to stoop or lift—
If you suffer sudden, darting pains—

If you are weak, lame and tired, Suspect your kidneys.
Watch for nature's signal.
The first sign may be a headache or dizziness.

Scanty, painful or too frequent urination,
Nervousness or a constant, dead-tired feeling.

Avert the serious kidney diseases. Treat the weakened kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills.

A remedy especially for sick kidneys. Endorsed in Dixon by your friends and neighbors.

N. W. Beal, 620 College Ave., Dixon, says: "For a long time I had kidney trouble and it showed itself in various ways. I had rheumatic twinges, my back was stiff and lame and after bending over, I could hardly straighten. When I was suffering intensely, I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Leake Bros.' Drug store. They gave me wonderful relief in a short time and I still use them, keeping my kidneys in good shape. All I said in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago holds good and I am glad to confirm that statement."

Mr. Beal is only one of many Dixon people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you—don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Beal had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c at all stores. arranged for the departure from Tsing-Tau of all non-combatants before the inauguration of the final assault upon the German fortress by the British-Japanese forces. During an armistice yesterday along the battle front 22 German defenders were buried. The fortress is firing 1,500 shells daily.

Bordeaux, Oct. 13.—It has been officially announced that the seat of tablished in France, several of the Belgian ministers having left Ostend for Havre. King Albert remains

The Hague, Oct. 13.—It is estimated that 22,000 Belgian and English soldiers who are enroute to northern Holland will be interned.
This is exclusive of the wounded who are being treated on the Belgian border.

AFRICAN COMMAND
REBELS; MARTIAL LAW.

London, Oct. 13.—It has been officially announced at Capetown, Union South Africa, that a command under Col Maritz has rebelled and that martial law has been proclaimed throughout the union.

The official statement indicates that the seditious movement is widespread and that Maritz, who fought against the British in the Boer war, has been wounded, while a number of his officers and a portion of his command, together with forces in German South Africa, are invading the northern part of the Cape provinces. According to an official statement an agreement has been drawn between Maritz and the governor of German Southwest Africa guaranteeing the independence of the Union.

ARTILLERY DUEL IN PROGRESS NEAR BELFORT.

London, Oct. 13.—Zurich, Switzerland, dispatches say that an artillery duel is progressing in the direction of the strong French fortress of Belfort.

AEROPLANE ATTACK
DESTROYED A ZEPPELIN.

London, Oct. 13.—Amsterdam dispatches say that the recent attack by a British aeroplane on Dusseldorf resulted in the destruction of one Zeppelin, the death of four people and the wounding of many.

CANAL HAS BEEN CLOSED TILL END OF WAR.

London, Oct. 13.—The Kaiser Wilhelm canal between the Baltic and North Seas has been closed to ordinary traffic for the duration of the war.

SON OF RUSSIAN
GRAND DUKE IS DEAD.

Petrograd, Oct. 13.—Prince Oleg, son of Grand Duke Constantine, is dead of wounds received in battle.

MONTENEGRINS ARE VICTORS OVER AUSTRILIANS.

London, Oct. 13.—A Gettinne dispatch, via Rome, says that the Montenegrins defeated 16,000 Austrians northeast of Sarajevo. The Austrian losses are said to have been 2, 500 killed and wounded while the Montenegrins lost 300.

REPORT LEMBERG
HAS BEEN RETAKEN.

Berlin, Oct. 13.—There is an unconfirmed report here that Lemberg, capital of Galicia, has been retaken by the Austrians.

RELIEF OF PRZEMYSL
HAS BEEN COMPLETED.

Vienna, Oct. 13.—An official statement issued today says: "Our offensive reaches the San River after numerous fights in most of which we were successful. The relief of the stronghold of Przemyśl has been completed."

lican candidate for Circuit Clerk.

Paris, Oct. 13.—Six bombs were dropped on Paris by a German aero-plane. None exploded. Five French aviators ascended and pursued the invading airship which fled to the east.
A bomb was dropped also on the suburb of St. Quen, near a tank containing 80,000 tons of gasoline, but failed to explode.

The mention of French marine fusiliers in the day's official report from Paris is the first reference made to such forces operating with the allies. The location of these troops is not given, but it is not improbable that they form a part of the mysterious army that has been massed along the Belgian coast to repel a possible advance by the Germans upon Ostend and other coast towns.
120 Corpses Under Wrecked Building.
Paris, Oct. 13.—The corpses of 120 civilians have been found underneath the debris of wrecked buildings in Arras, following the German bombardment. Most of the city is in ruins.
The Germans that attacked the French there are unofficially reported to be falling back toward the Belgian border.

Paris, Oct. 13.—The official communique issued at 11:15 p. m. is as follows:

"There is no detailed information to make public. Violent attacks have been made at many points along the front. We have gained some ground; nowhere have we lost any."

The text of the afternoon's official statement follows:

"1.—On our left wing the cavalry engagements continue in the region of La Basse, Estaires and Hazebrouck.
Between Arras and Oise the enemy endeavored to deliver several attacks, which failed, notably between Lassigny and Roye.

"2.—On the center we have made some progress on the plateaus of the right bank of the Aisne, in front of Soissons, and to the east and southeast of Verdun.

"3.—On our right wing, in the Vos-ges, the enemy delivered a night attack in the region of Ban de Sapt to the north of St. Die; they were repulsed.

"The flag captured yesterday belonged to the Sixth regiment of active Pomeranian Infantry, No. 49, of the Twentieth corps of the Prussian army.
The brigade of marine fusiliers was engaged during all the day of Oct. 9 and the night of Oct. 9-10 against German forces and repulsed them and at the same time inflicted heavy losses, amounting to 200 men killed and fifty prisoners. The French losses amounted to nine killed, thirty-nine wounded and one missing."

London, Oct. 13.—A dispatch to the Reuter's Telegram company from Amsterdam says:

"A telegram from Vienna states that it is officially announced that the Austrian rapid advance has relieved Prze-mysl, Galicia, of the Russians. The Austrians have entered the fortress at all points and where the Russians attempted resistance they were beaten.
The Russians fled in the direction of the River San, attempting to cross at Siniava and Lenayak, where a great number were captured."

Germans Retire, Say Russ.

Petrograd, Oct. 13.—The following official communication from the Russian official staff has been issued:

"Our cavalry on the front attacked and cut to pieces several bodies of German advance guards and took as prisoners all those who escaped determination. (The place where the battle occurred is not mentioned in the statement.)

"During the fighting the Russian standard bearer, Prince Oleg, a son of Grand Duke Constantine, who reached the enemy first, was shot through the leg and slightly wounded.

"On the front in East Prussia the situation is unchanged. The Germans, profiting by their railroad communications, are trying to hold the positions they occupy in the vicinity of the frontier.

"Several engagements have taken place on the left bank of the Vistula during the transportation of troops from one side to the other.

"In Galicia the Austrians have split up in groups and are operating in various directions. In spite of the prudence of their offensive, our cavalry succeeded in surprising an Austrian division on the march, and, attacking it by a cross fire, dispersed part of it."

Defenders Routed, Says Berlin.
Berlin, Oct. 13.—The general staff of the German army announces that in the beginning a very strong garrison de-

Gossip and Scandal.

Many people confuse gossip with scandal but the two things are quite different. The scandal monger is usually detested, while the gossip is often universally popular. In fact the popularity which it brings in its train is one of the strongest incentives to gossip. A really accomplished gossip is a social acquisition.

Thousands of people who do not gossip themselves like to listen to it.
It saves them the trouble of talking.
The gossip is generally good natured. The scandal monger seldom is. After all, what is more interesting than human nature? That is the stock in trade of the gossip, as it is of the novelist and dramatist. Gen-tlewoman.

A Kentucky Problem.

It is a question with some which is the cheaper and safer, a mule or an automobile. The mule must have corn, hay, oats or grass. He may in the meantime get to buck jumping and land you in the middle of a mud hole or on top of a pile of rocks. The automobile eats nothing but gasoline and when at rest is as harmless as a cat. But when it gets to running it goes at it blind and is liable to want to climb a telephone pole or jump off the bridge. Mules and automobiles are really both dangerous. Therefore we walk—

Christianity in Japan.

Miss Cornelia Judson visited several of the cities and towns of Japan, making an evangelistic tour of nearly three months in duration. She writes: "Everywhere I found only hope and great opportunities for work. The Japanese are now ready to listen to Christian teaching as never before. The leaders of the people have laid aside their opposition and are thinking seriously of the need of such moral teaching and training as Christianity alone can give for their young people."
